

PRIVACY TERMS OF USE

1. Introduction

Welcome to our MIDI TECHNOLOGY application. Our priority is to ensure the privacy and security of our users' data. This Privacy Term of Use explains how we collect, use, store and protect your information when using our service. By accessing or using our Application, you agree to the terms described in this document. If you do not agree, please do not use the service.

2. Collected Information

We may collect the following information to ensure the functionality and continuous improvement of the Application:

Personal Information: Name, email, phone number and profile picture, when provided voluntarily.

Usage Information: Access logs, preferences, interaction history and location data (if authorized by the user).

Device Data: Device model, operating system, application version and unique device identifiers.

Payment Methods: Information for payment processing, stored by authorized third parties and not by the Application.

3. Use of Information

The information collected will be used to:

- Personalize the user experience and improve our services;
- Process reservations and payments;
- Communicate with the user for support and important notifications;
- Comply with legal and regulatory obligations;
- Security and fraud prevention;
- Statistical analysis and development of new features.

4. Sharing of Data

We do not sell or trade your personal information. However, we may share it with:

Service Partners: To enable the use of the application, such as payment processors, hosting companies and communication providers;

Legal Authorities: In compliance with legal obligations or by court order;

Other Users: If necessary for the provision of the service, such as contact information between passengers and drivers.

5. Data Security

We adopt technical and organizational measures to protect your data against unauthorized access, misuse or improper disclosure. However, no data transmission over the Internet is completely secure. If you identify any vulnerability, please contact us.

6. Storage and Retention

Your data is stored on secure servers and retained for the time necessary to fulfill the purposes stated in this Term. After this period, it may be anonymized or deleted in accordance with current legislation.

7. User Rights

You may, at any time:

- Access, correct or update your personal data;
- Request the deletion of your account and associated information;
- Revoke consent previously given;
- Request portability of your data;
- Contact us to clarify questions about the privacy of your data.

To exercise these rights, simply access the application settings or contact us via email at usamidicontact@gmail.com

8. Changes to the Privacy Term

This document may be updated periodically. Whenever there are significant changes, we will notify users via the Application or registered email.
